Wynn Everett Donates Christmas Gifts to Everett Children

LAS VEGAS (December 10, 2015)—Wynn Everett is making Christmas special for hundreds of Everett families in need by donating more than $2,500 worth of toys to support Mayor Carlo DeMaria's Annual Holiday Toy Drive.

The annual toy drive benefits families who do not have enough money to buy a Christmas present for their children. The number of families requesting assistance has increased annually and will exceed more than 500 this year.

“Making sure a child has a gift to open and enjoy for the holidays is a cause that touches us at both a corporate and personal level,” said Robert DeSalvio, president of Wynn Everett who, in addition to providing a truck load of toys, also made a $500 cash donation to the fund through the Everett Kiwanis Club. “Wynn team members and vendors were showing up at our door unsolicited with bags filled with toys and gifts for the drive. To see such an outpouring of support for our neighbors in need during the holidays was very satisfying. Doing whatever we can to put a smile on a child is what the season is all about.”
